

Star 26

Max Lipschitz was born in New York City 1891 and enlisted at the age of 27. He served in World War 1 in the United States Army as a Private with the 153 DB Rec. Det. and was last assigned 14th Pror. Co. Mgre. Private Lipschitz was issued the Bronze Victory Button upon his discharge from the Army on February 5th, 1919. His granddaughters Joanne R. Louth and Joyce Rzucek placed his star on October 21, 2016.