West Windsor Township Beautiful Pavilion in Nash Park

West Windsor, NJ – West Windsor Mayor Shing-Fu Hsueh announced today that donations are being accepted by the Friends of West Windsor Open Space (FOWWOS) to commission a sculpture in honor of Nobel Prize Winner Dr. John Nash and his wife Alicia Nash. The sculpture will be created by artist Gyuri Hollosy of Grounds for Sculpture, assisted by Joseph W. Acquah, and will be located in Nash Park, leading up to the “Beautiful Pavilion”. All donations are to be made payable to “FOWWOS” and are tax deductible. All donations received will be recognized. Please add a note “for Nash Park” to your check and forward to Friends of West Windsor Open Space, P.O. Box 73, West Windsor, New Jersey 08550 or donate on-line via credit card by accessing the Friends of West Windsor Open Space website and clicking on “Nash Park Donation”.

Mayor Hsueh stated, “We take great pride in honoring two very special residents of West Windsor Township. Dr. Nash and Mrs. Nash will always be remembered for enriching the world with a beautiful mind and a loving heart.”
