West Windsor Human Relations Council Present West Windsor Cultural Diversity Day: Music, Dance, and Country Exhibit

Location: WW-P High School South, 346 Clarksville Road, West Windsor

Date & Time: On Sunday, May 21, 2017, 3:00 PM – 6:00 PM

May 21, 2017 is “Cultural Diversity Day” sponsored by West Windsor’s Human Relations Council to support the diverse groups that make our Township stand out. The event will showcase the diverse ethnic, cultural, and social groups in the community to further strengthen relations, understanding and communications amongst all residents.

The afternoon will feature the professional music group Sky Caravan playing European Gypsy music collected by the violinist, Milena Dawidowicz String Orchestra Director for South Brunswick School District who will play with Elena Panova, piano teacher at the Peddie School and Chamber Music Coordinator at Westminster Choir College and Michael Gokhberg on bass guitar. There will also be Indian, Persian and Chinese folk dancing and performances from students at the Plainsboro Chinese School and the Institute of Islamic Studies. Beside this, there will be country exhibits of India, China, Bangladesh, Iran, and Pakistan.

Mayor Shing-Fu Hsueh states, "

Human Relations Council Chairperson, Tasneem Sultan adds, “the goal of the event is to celebrate the rich diverse background of West Windsor residents that is another avenue to helps us better understand and appreciate each other”.

Admission is free to all. Please invite your friends, neighbors and relatives to attend and enjoy the talents of our community residents. For more information, please contact the West Windsor Township at 609-799-2400 or email Tasneem Sultan at: hrc.wwt@gmail.com
