Tired of the bar scene - 39

Hi. I was born and raised in Brooklyn. I've been living in New Jersey for the last 11 years. I moved here because of my job. I work in Summit. I've been a stockbroker for 15 years. I have my own business. I have never been married and have no kids. I have an older sister and a younger brother. My sister has 3 kids who I just cherish. I work out 3 times a week and I'm in very good shape. I think I have everything in life. A good job, great family and friends. The only thing missing is someone to share my life with. I am so tired of the single scene. It is such a waste of time on a Saturday night to go to a bar and talk to someone, only to find, after buying her drinks that she is dating someone. I enjoy being in a relationship and showing someone a good time. I'm looking for someone who is kind, fun, caring, has a good sense of humor (laughing at my jokes are important) and like to have a good time. I enjoy traveling, dining out, comedy clubs, concerts, all sports, and the beach. If you want to be treated like a princess, maybe we're off to a good start. Please respond with a picture. Thanks.....Richie

40 things guys do wrong in bed MUST READ!

Current mood: 😊 bored

1) NOT KISSING FIRST.

Avoiding her lips and diving straight for the erogenous zones makes her feel like you're paying by the hour and trying to get your money's worth by cutting out nonessentials. A proper passionate kiss is the ultimate form of foreplay.

2) BLOWING TOO HARD IN HER EAR.

Admit it, some kid at school told you girls love this. Well, there's a difference between being erotic and blowing as if you're trying to extinguish the candles on your 50th birthday cake. That hurts.

3) NOT SHAVING.

You often forget you have a porcupine strapped to your chin which you rake repeatedly across your partner's face and thighs. When she turns her head from side to side, it's not passion, it's avoidance.

4) SQUEEZING HER BREAST.

Most men act like a housewife testing a melon for ripeness when they get their hand on a pair. Stroke, caress, and smooth them.

5) BITING HER NIPPLES.

Why do men fasten onto a woman's nipples, then clamp down like they're trying to deflate her body via her breasts? Nipples are highly sensitive. They can't stand up to chewing. Lick and suck them gently. Flicking your tongue across them is good. Pretending they're a doggie toy isn't.

6) TWIDDLING HER NIPPLES.

Stop doing that thing where you twiddle the nipples between finger and thumb like you're trying to find a radio station in a hilly area. Focus on the whole breasts, not just the exclamation points.

7) IGNORING THE OTHER PARTS OF HER BODY.

A woman is not a highway with just three turnoffs: Breastville East and West, and the Midtown Tunnel. There are vast areas of her body which you've ignored far too often as you go bombing straight into downtown Vagina. So start paying them some attention.

8) GETTING THE HAND TRAPPED.

Poor manual dexterity in the underskirt region can result in tangled fingers and underpants. If you're going to be that aggressive, just ask her to take the damn things off.

9) LEAVING HER A LITTLE PRESENT.

Condom disposal is the man's responsibility. You wore it, you store it.

10) ATTACKING THE CLITORIS.

Direct pressure is very unpleasant, so gently rotate your fingers along side of the clitoris.

11) STOPPING FOR A BREAK.

Women, unlike men, don't pick up where they left off. If you stop, they plummet back to square one very fast. If you can tell she's not there, keep going at all costs, numb jaw or not.

12) UNDESSING HER AWKWARDLY.

Women hate looking stupid, but stupid she will look when naked at the waist with a sweater stuck over her head. Unwrap her like an elegant present, not a kid's toy.

Why is this a problem?

Kid accused of MySpace threats faces expulsion

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — A middle school student faces expulsion for allegedly posting graphic threats against a classmate on the popular MySpace.com Web site, and 20 of his classmates were suspended for viewing the posting, school officials said.

Police are investigating the boy's comments about his classmate at TeWinkle Middle School as a possible hate crime, and the district is trying to expel him.

According to three parents of the suspended students, the invitation to join the boy's MySpace group gave no indication of the alleged threat. They said the MySpace social group name's was "I hate (girl's name)" and included an expletive and an anti-Semitic reference.

A later message to group members directed them to a non-descript folder, which included a posting that allegedly asked: "Who here in the (group name) wants to take a shotgun and blast her in the head over a thousand times?"

Underage sex case involves Jersey man

By MATT APUZZO

Of The Associated Press

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Two men, including one from New Jersey, used the Web site MySpace.com to set up sexual encounters with underage Connecticut girls, authorities said yesterday in what they described as the first federal sex cases involving the popular networking site.

The two unrelated cases come after weeks in which the site's potential dangers have been the topic of discussion for law enforcement, parents and school officials nationwide.

"The Internet has allowed people to invade our own homes, to have conversations with our children in the privacy of our own homes without us ever knowing about it," U.S. Attorney Kevin O'Connor said.

In one case, Sonny Szeto, 22, traveled from Jersey City to Connecticut in October and molested an 11-year-old girl in her playroom while her parents slept upstairs, according to an FBI affidavit.

In the other case, Stephen

FBI said.

Both men face federal interstate sex charges. Szeto, who has since moved to Queens, N.Y., was ordered placed on house arrest with his parents in Nashua, N.H. As of yesterday morning, prosecutors said he was still being held until his family could post $600,000 bond and cancel his Internet connection.

A message was left with the public defender's office, which represented Szeto.

Letavec, a volunteer firefighter, is being held without bond pending his arraignment in Connecticut. He was represented in Pennsylvania by a public defender, W. Penn Hackney, who would not comment and it was not immediately clear who his attorney would be in Connecticut.

MySpace, a division of News Corp., allows its 54 million users to find online friends by searching for their school or their interests. The site prohibits minors 13 and under from joining, discourages users from posting personal information and provides special protections for those 14 and 15.

Five Students Arrested in Alleged School Threat

By MARCUS KABEL, AP

RIVERTON, Kan. (April 20) - Five teenage boys accused of plotting a shooting rampage at their high school on the anniversary of the Columbine massacre were arrested Thursday after a message authorities said warned of a gun attack appeared on the Web site MySpace.com.

Mike Gullett, AP

Riverton High School officials investigated after learning that a threatening message had been posted on the Web site MySpace.com.

Sheriff's deputies found guns, ammunition, knives and coded messages in the bedroom of one suspect, Sheriff Steve Norman said. Authorities also found documents about firearms and references to Armageddon in two suspects' school lockers.

Student Who Met Man on MySpace Returns

By DAVID N. GOODMAN, AP

DETROIT (June 10) - A 16-year-old honor student from Michigan tricked her parents into getting her a passport and then flew off to the Mideast to be with a West Bank man she met on MySpace.com, authorities say.

U.S. officials in Jordan persuaded her to turn around and go home before she reached the West Bank. She returned home Friday.

Katherine R. Lester is a straight-A student and student council member, her father said. "She's a good girl. Never had a problem with her," Terry Lester said.

■ In Winslow Township, three Winslow High School students and one from Hammononton High were charged with conspiracy to commit murder, terroristic threats and terrorism. They allegedly plotted to execute approximately 25 teachers and students during a lunch period. The alleged ringleader of the group, a 15-year-old student at Winslow Township High School, had a Satanic pentagram on his MySpace home page and mentioned that Satan was his "one and only hero." There were no threats published on the Web site, however, and authorities would not confirm or deny whether they have accessed the teen's page for evidence.

■ Judy Cajuste, 14, of Roselle, reportedly met a man from Newark through her profile on MySpace.com. Cajuste's body was found in a Newark garbage container in January, a few days after her family reported her missing.

■ On April 12, a 15-year-old female student at Washington Township High School in Gloucester County was charged with harassment when authorities found an alleged "hit list" on her MySpace page. Authorities in Washington Township said the sophomore had not accessed the page since January and may have created the list as far back as 2004 when she was in middle school. There were specific threats against 17 people on the list, and school officials notified the parents of each student, police said.

Tips to Keep Your Children and Teens Safer When Using Social Networking Sites

- ◆ Discuss the dangers and future repercussions with your child.
- ◆ Enter into a safe-computing contract with your child about his or her use of these sites and computer use in general.
- ◆ Enable computer Internet filtering features if they are available from your Internet service.
- ◆ Install monitoring software or keystroke capture devices on your family computer that will help monitor your child's Internet activity.*
- ◆ Know each of your child's passwords, screennames, and all account information.

- ◆ Put the computer in a family area of the household and do not permit private usage.
- ◆ Monitor what your child's friends are posting regarding your child's identity. Often children and their friends have accounts linked to one another, so it's not just your child's profile and information you need to worry about.
- ◆ Know what other access your child has to computers and devices like cell phones and PDAs.
- ◆ Remember that every day is Halloween on the Internet. People on the Internet are not always who they appear to be.

◆ Tracking down your child

◆ By Clare Murphy

BBC News Online

The careless motorist, the paedophile and the drug pusher are the spectres which haunt modern day parents.

◆ It gave me peace of mind and made me feel closer to him. It made me feel more involved with what he was doing

Mother In North America, technology has successfully been harnessed to enable anxious parents to follow the moves of their offspring, using satellite positioning systems which children can carry within watches or backpacks.

"Peace of mind" is the marketing cry of the manufacturers.

- ◆ Now Finland, the home of the mobile phone, is considering legislation that would allow parents to track the moves of their children on an internet page at home, using a system which locates their child's phone.
