

Star 27

William P. McManimon

William P. McManimon, from Hamilton, NJ enlisted in the United States Army Infantry in 1944 and served in World War II taking part in the Invasion of Normandy and France at Utah Beach. William was wounded in action near St. Lo, France in 1945. He was awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge and a Purple Heart. His star was placed by his daughter Barbara P. Campbell.